MUTINEERS STILL GREAT FIRE RAGING

Troops Firing Into the Crowds at Every Point, While Panic-Stricken Residents Rush About Madly, Seeking Shelter from Shower of Bullets.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29-8.50 P. M.-An untimed despatch seceived this evening from Odessa and which may have been delayed by the authorities, says:

"The mutineers of the battleship Kniaz Potemkine still hold the ship Rear-Admiral Kruger's squadron has not arrived here.

"A great fire is destroying the shipping in the harbor and the buildlngs along the shore, and in the streets a continuous rattle of small arms

"The military everywhere are shooting into the crowds, which are panic stricken and madly rushing hither and thither for shelter. "The number of victims is large."
